Arts Grants Recipients
New Brunswick Arts Board

January 9, 2001

FREDERICTON – The New Brunswick Arts Board announced today the results of the latest competition for Creation and Documentation, Emerging Artists and Arts-by-Invitation Grants.

The Creation Grant provides assistance to professional New Brunswick artists for the research, development and execution of original projects in the arts. The Documentation Grant provides assistance to professional New Brunswick artists for documentation of arts activities, arts products or art history. The Emerging Artist program provides assistance to emerging professional artists in presenting creation or documentation projects. The New Brunswick Arts-by-Invitation program promotes New Brunswick by assisting the province's best artists to present work by invitation at out-of-province arts events of national or international repute.

Under the Creation and Documentation programs, a total of 41 applications qualified for the juried competition and a total of $127,496 was awarded to the 20 successful applicants:

Craft: Brigitte Clavette, Fredericton, ($6,000); Vita Plume, Fredericton ($7,000);
Literary Arts: Anne Compton, Rothesay, ($6,000); Gracia Couturier, Moncton, ($7,000); Raymond Fraser, Fredericton, ($7,000); Kathy Diane Leveille, Quispamsis, ($6,996); Darlene Ryan, Fredericton, ($6,000);
Music: Claude Fournier, Caraquet, ($7,000); Steven Peacock, Fredericton, ($7,000); Tan-Trao Phi, Moncton (commission - R. Gibson), ($2,112); Zéro ° Celsius, Moncton, ($7,000);
Visual Arts: Louisa Barton-Duguay, Moncton, ($7,000); Erik Edson, Sackville, ($6,000); Peter Gross, Fredericton, ($7,000); Philip Iverson, Fredericton, ($7,000); Élaine Amyot, Dieppe, (Documentation), ($7,000); Lianne Mctavish, Fredericton, (Documentation), ($7,000); Roslyn Rosenfeld, Fredericton (Documentation), ($3,388);
Theatre: Moncton Sable, Moncton, ($7,000); David Lonergan, Moncton, (Documentation), ($7,000).

Under the Emerging Artist program, a total of 16 applications qualified for the juried competition and a total of $30,000 was awarded to the 10 successful applicants:

Film and Video: Cathie LeBlanc, Fredericton, ($3,000);
Dance: Manon Boudreau, Moncton, ($3,000);
Literary Arts: Sandra LeCouteur, Pointe-Alexandre, ($3,000);
Music: Sean Boudreau, Saint-Jacques, ($3,000);
Visual Arts: Jennifer Bélanger, Edmundston, ($3,000); Angèle Cormier, Moncton, ($3,000); Chris Giles, Fredericton, ($3,000); Oliver Harwood, Mount Pisgah, ($3,000); Monica Macdonald, Fredericton, ($3,000);
Theatre: Mario LeBlanc, Moncton, ($3,000).

Under the Arts-by-Invitation program, a total of 11 applications qualified for the juried competition and a total of $16,000 was awarded to the 7 successful applicants:

Craft: Vita Plume, Fredericton, ($270);
Music: Michel Cardin, Moncton, ($1,465); Dominique Dupuis, Memramcook, ($1,250); Roger Lord, Moncton, ($3,559); À Coeur Joie, Moncton, ($3,756);
Visual Arts: Suzanne Hill, Kathy Hooper,Toby Graser, Rothesay, ($5,275); Erik Edson, Sackville, ($ 425).

The juried programs are administrated by the New Brunswick Arts Board and financed through the Arts Development Trust Fund. The deadline for application was October 1, 2000.
The jurors were selected from a list approved by the New Brunswick Arts Board.
The multidisciplinary jury met on December 6, 7 and 8, 2000 and evaluated the applications according to the program criteria.

Jury members for this competition included: Ghita Levin, Baie Verte, (craft); René Poirier, Moncton, (theatre); Travis Lane, Fredericton, (English-language literary arts); Herzl Kashetsky, Saint-John, (visual arts); Paul Bossé, Moncton, (film and video); Martine Thériault, Caraquet, (music and community cultural development or art education); Julie Scriver, Fredericton, (dance - Emerging Artists and Arts-by-Invitation only); Pierre Raphael Pelletier, Embrun, Ontario (French-language literary arts and out-of-province juror).

The next deadline to apply under the Creation, Documentation or Emerging artists program is April 1st, 2001. For information, call the New Brunswick Arts Board office at (506) 460-5888.

January 9, 2001

MEDIA CONTACT: Michelle Anne Duguay, Program Officer, New Brunswick Arts Board, (506) 460-5888.